

Good morning parents,

GET LOTS OF SLEEP THE NIGHT BEFORE AND HAVE A NUTRITIOUS BREAKFAST IN THE MORNING.

We hope you had a fun-filled, relaxing weekend.

Study guides had been uploaded to provide specific, directed help to parents and students.

Starting Sunday, We will start revising for the upcoming exams which will start on the 24th of October. Preparation begins with revision in class. Students should also begin to revise at home.

On Tuesday, we will proceed with unit 2 in Hodder book. There will be NO spelling quiz this week.

Regarding Social Studies, students are expected to study the first five lessons in unit 1.

If you have any question, I would be happy to answer it through classdojo or alternatively arrange a time where we can discuss matters in length.

Yours Sincerely,

Reham Ras.

It always seems impossible until it is DONE.
